

Evaluate

Objective Type Questions

A. Tick (✓) the correct answer.

1. Clothes protect us from:
a. dust and dirt      b. insects      c. harsh weather       d. all of these
2. Which of the following is a natural fibre?
 a. Cotton      b. Rayon      c. Polyester      d. Nylon

B. Fill in the blanks.

1. The material from which clothes are made is known as fibre.
2. The fibre obtained from nature, that is, plants or animals is known as natural fibre.
3. Clothes do not allow dust and dirt to stick to our body.

Short Answer Questions

Ch-8

Clothes We Wear

Hard words

- |                  |               |
|------------------|---------------|
| 1. protection    | 8. condition  |
| 2. weather       | 9. region     |
| 3. insects       | 10. tradition |
| 4. natural       |               |
| 5. synthetic     |               |
| 6. biodegradable |               |
| 7. climatic      |               |

Short answer questions

Q1 Define synthetic fibres.

Ans Fibres like nylon, rayon and polyester are made artificially by humans.

Hence, they are known as human-made fibres or synthetic fibres

Q2 What kind of materials protect us from rain?

Ans Waterproof materials protect us from rain

Long answer questions

Q1 How can we take care of clothes?

Explain.

Ans We take care of clothes by :-

1. Washing :- We should wash clothes

by detergent and soap

to remove dust, stains and germs.

2. Dry cleaning :- Woollen and silk clothes should be dry-cleaned after use.

DATE: / /

PAGE NO.:

3 Protection from insects :- We should protect clothes from insects by using naphthalene balls and neem leaves.

Q2 How do climatic conditions and tradition influence the clothes worn by people?

Ans In hot places, people usually wear cotton clothes. Cotton clothes allow air to pass through them and can also absorbs sweat.

In cold places, people mostly wear woollen clothes as they keep our body warm.

All around the world, people wear dresses according to their traditions for example, men in Scotland wear 'Kilts' and women wear 'khillies' as their traditional dress. In Japan, women wear the 'Kimono'.