Name all the people who are tried in the King's Court, and give the reasons for their trial.

Ans. The owner of the house, the bricklayer, the dancing girl and the goldsmith. They were tried in the court because the thief died when the wall of merchant's house had collapsed. The merchant was tried for building a weak wall. The bricklayer was tried for doing his work carelessly. The dancing girl was tried for disturbing the concentration of the bricklayer. The goldsmith was blamed for making the dancing girl walk up and down his house many times.

(अथवा)

Q4) Who is real culprit according to the King? Why does he escape punishment?

Ans. The real culprit (अथवा, अथवा) was merchant's dead father for making the wall weak. But according to the King the merchant was the real culprit because he had inherited both sins and riches of ~~his~~ ^{his} father. He escaped the punishment because he was too thin to fit the stake (अथवा अथवा).

Q5) What were the Guru's words of wisdom? When does the disciple remember them?

Ans. The Guru was full of wisdom and knew well that the unpredictable behaviour of the fools could create danger anytime. The Guru's words were, "They are all fools."

This won't last very long, and you can't tell what they'll do to you next. The disciple remembered them when he was arrested by the men of King.

Q.6. How does the gully manage to save his disciple's life?

Ans. The Gully arrived on time to save his disciple and created a drama. He told the King that it was not an ordinary stake and whoever went to the stake first would become King in next life. The second to die would become his minister. The King wanted to avail himself of the opportunity. The Gully and his disciple were released.
