The Cof and the Anthem

Q1. What are some of the signs of approaching winter referred to in the text?

Ans. The signs of approaching winter are the movement of birds to warm places, people want new woollen clothes and the dead leaves covering the ground.

Q2. What was Soapy's first plan? Why did it not work?

Ans. His first plan was to go and eat at restaurant and would then tell them he had no money. They would call a cop who would arrest him. But as soon as soapy entered the restaurant, the cheer waiter saw his broken old shoes and the torn ~~a~~ clothes. Then Soapy was turned out of the restaurant. Thus his first plan did not work.

Q4. 'But the Cop's mind would not consider Soapy'. What did the cop not consider, and why?

Ans. The policeman did not believe that Soapy had broken the window glass. The Reason was that no such criminal would stop and talk to a policeman. They would run as fast as they could. But Soapy was standing there.

Q. 5. ~~When Soapy started shouting outside the theatre pretending to be a dr.~~

Q5. "We have orders to let them shout!"

What is the policeman referring to?

Ans. When Soapy started shouting outside the theatre pretending to be a drunkard the policeman thought that he was one of those harmless college students. So he said so.

Q7. "There was a sudden and wonderful change in his soul." What brought about the change in Soapy?

Ans. The sight of the home where Soapy had spent his childhood suddenly changed his outlook. The old memories of his mother and the sweet music revived his love for a decent (312007) life. He realised at the
