

Ch-7 The Camel and the
Trader

Hard words

1. trader
2. desert
3. freezing
4. shoulders
5. tent
6. pushes
7. things
8. warm
9. cold
10. carries

* Word meaning.

1. trader : a person who buys and sells things.
2. desert : a hot dry area where very few plants grow
3. freezing : very cold

* Answer the questions

Q.1. Why does the camel put its head inside the tent?

Ans. The camel put its head inside the tent because it is cold outside.

Q.2. What does the camel put inside the tent next?

Ans. The camel puts his shoulders inside the tent.

Q.3. When it became colder, what does the camel want to put inside the tent?

Ans. The camel wants to put his half of body inside the tent.

Evaluate

Reading

(reading for main ideas)

A. Put a tick (✓) if these sentences are true or a cross (✗) if they are not true.

1. The trader is very kind.
2. That night, it was warm in the desert.
3. The camel feels cold.
4. First, the camel puts its neck into the tent.
5. Finally, the camel puts half its body in.

B. Tick (✓) the right options to answer these questions.

1. How does the trader feel when the camel makes the request for the first time?
 - a. willing to help
 - b. sad
 - c. happy
 - d. angry
2. What does the camel do slowly?
 - a. find shelter in the tent
 - b. enter the tent step by step
 - c. remain outside
 - d. feel warm
3. What does the camel do at the end of the story?
 - a. It sits near its master.
 - b. It pushes its master out.
 - c. It eats all its master's food.
 - d. It lights a fire in the tent.